

Why Lincoln Was a Lawyer:

Abraham Lincoln, the Law & Civic Education

Attorney Volunteer Sign-Up Form

The Indiana State Bar Association and The Indiana Supreme Court invite schools and attorneys in Indiana to participate in “Why Lincoln Was a Lawyer: Abraham Lincoln, the Law & Civic Education,” a program celebrating the bicentennial of President Abraham Lincoln. Indiana attorneys will have the opportunity to participate in this celebration by volunteering to speak in classrooms statewide about Lincoln as a model citizen on Thursday, Feb. 12, 2009.

As a volunteer attorney, you will receive materials to assist with your presentation. Thanks for your participation in this exciting celebration! For more information, please contact Carissa Long at 1.800.266.2581 or clong@inbar.org.
